With the holidays quickly approaching, it's the perfect time to gather with loved ones and enjoy delicious, comforting meals. Whether you're preparing a cozy brunch or a grand holiday dinner, elevate your celebrations with festive dishes. Celebrity chef and TV personality Pati Jinich shares five expert tips to add an extra layer of flavor and nutrition to your holiday cooking!

1. Give the gift of flavor and tradition
This holiday season, start a new tradition by organizing a family recipe exchange - an inspiring way to bring loved ones together. Whether it's sharing cherished recipes passed down through generations or introducing new dishes that could become future family favorites, it's a heartfelt way to celebrate. To add to the joy and further spread holiday cheer, consider gifting kitchen tools and supplies to the cooks and bakers in your family. These thoughtful culinary gifts will not only elevate their holiday meals but also create memories for years to come.

2. Create holiday magic in the kitchen together

Make holiday meal prep a joyful, shared experience by inviting loved ones into the kitchen. Whether it's chopping fresh ingredients, mixing up favorite dishes, or rolling out dough for festive treats, everyone can play a part in the celebration. Even the little ones can get involved, from shaping cookies to serving as taste testers. By cooking together, you'll not only lighten the load but also create delicious meals and heartwarming memories beyond the holiday season.

3. Fuel your festivities with a filling breakfast

Kick off your holiday celebrations with a hearty, egg-based breakfast that will fuel the whole family through the day's activities. Keep things simple with classic favorites like omelets, scrambles or quiches. These easy-to-make dishes are packed with protein and provide the perfect foundation for a long day ahead. There's no better way to begin the holiday than with a meal that's both delicious and nourishing.

4. Elevate your tablescape with festive décor

Enhance your holiday table with festive décor that adds a touch of warmth and charm. Incorporating seasonal elements like candles, greenery and winter-themed place settings will create a cozy and inviting atmosphere that encourages conversation and connection, making every guest feel special. A thoughtfully styled tablescape not only complements your meal but also sets the stage for memorable holiday gatherings.

5. End celebrations on a sweet note with delicious desserts

No holiday meal is complete without a delicious dessert to bring everyone together and wrap up the festivities. Baking something from scratch adds a personal touch to your celebration. For the best results, it's important to use high-quality ingredients like Eggland's Best eggs that will take your holiday treats to the next level. With more than double the Vitamin B12 and 25% less saturated fat compared to ordinary eggs, Eggland's Best eggs help balance indulgence with health-conscious choices, making them ideal for your holiday baking. To truly impress your guests this season, try this recipe for Dedos de Novia (Bride's Cookies) from Eggland's Best - a festive and delightful addition to your holiday table.

Dedos de Novia (Bride's Cookies)

Prep time: 2 hours; Cook time: 13 minutes; Yield: 70 cookies

Ingredients

2 Eggland's Best eggs, large. Yolks only

1 stick unsalted butter, 1/2 cup, at room temperature

1/2 cup vegetable shortening

1 cup powdered sugar, plus more for covering the cookies

2 teaspoons vanilla extract

2 cups all-purpose flour

1 teaspoon baking powder

1/2 teaspoon kosher salt

Instructions

* In a stand-mixer bowl fitted with the paddle attachment, beat butter, vegetable shortening and sugar at medium-low speed until soft and creamy, about 1-2 minutes. Add the Eggland's Best egg yolks and vanilla extract. Continue mixing until incorporated. Reduce speed to low and add flour, baking powder and salt. Continue to mix until all ingredients are incorporated. Scrape mixture onto a piece of plastic wrap and refrigerate for two hours or up to a couple of days.

* When ready to bake, set oven racks in the upper and lower thirds of the oven and preheat to 350 degrees. Cover two baking sheets with parchment paper.

* Cut the dough into two pieces, leaving one in the refrigerator. Gently flatten dough and place it between two sheets of parchment, wax paper or plastic wrap. Using a rolling pin, roll to about 1/2-inch thickness. Using a sharp knife or bench scraper, cut the dough into 1/2-inch by 2-inch rectangles. Then, use a dinner knife or back side of a fork or spoon to make 2 shallow lines down the length of the cookie.

* Place cookies on baking sheets and bake for 12 to 13 minutes or until lightly golden on sides and bottoms. Remove from the oven.

* When cool enough to handle, gently dip cookies in a bowl containing powdered sugar and cover entirely. Eat or keep covered in a container with a lid until ready to eat.

SYNCHRONIZE YOUR WATCHES! BACK TO THE FUTURE SETS ITS DESTINATION FOR COSTA MESA

Lead producer Colin Ingram together with Robert Zemeckis and Bob Gale, the creators of the Back to the Future film trilogy, and Segerstrom Center for the Arts are thrilled to announce the 2022 Olivier Award-winning Best New Musical, BACK TO THE FUTURE: The Musical will come to Costa Mesa as part of the 2024-25 Broadway Season, just in time for the holidays! The Broadway and West End hit show based on the Universal Pictures/Amblin Entertainment film will play Segerstrom Center for the Arts from December 26, 2024 to January 5, 2025.

Marty McFly is a rock 'n' roll teenager who is accidentally transported back to 1955 in a time-traveling DeLorean invented by his friend, Dr. Emmett Brown. But before he can return to 1985, Marty must make sure his high school-aged parents fall in love in order to save his own existence.

Based on the Universal Pictures/Amblin Entertainment film, BACK TO THE FUTURE: The Musical has a book by Bob Gale, new music and lyrics by Emmy and Grammy Award-winning Alan Silvestri and six-time Grammy Award-winning Glen Ballard, with additional songs from the film including "The Power of Love" and "Johnny B. Goode." Bob Gale is the co-creator and co-writer of the Back to the Future film trilogy and Alan Silvestri composed the iconic film score for the series.

BACK TO THE FUTURE: The

Musical is directed by Tony Award® winner John Rando and features a multi-Tony and Olivier Award-winning design team that includes Tim Hatley (set and costume design), Tim Lutkin and Hugh Vanstone (lighting), Gareth Owen (sound) and Finn Ross (video), with choreography by Chris Bailey, musical supervision and arrangements by Nick Finlow, illusions by Chris Fisher, orchestrations by Ethan Popp and Bryan Crook, dance arrangements by David Chase, and casting by Tara Rubin. Bespoke Theatricals serves as General Manager.

Bob Gale said, "To paraphrase Marty McFly, you guys are ready for this, and your kids are gonna love it (too)! If Bob Zemeckis and I time traveled back to 1980 and told our younger selves that the script they were struggling to write would become a Broadway musical 43 years later, they'd kick us out of their office and call us crazy. Well, sometimes, crazy ideas give birth to great entertainment, and now Bob and I are eager to share our musical vision with New York audiences. The London production exceeded our original expectations on every level, and we're certain the Broadway version, along with the fantastic songs by Alan Silvestri and Glen Ballard, will be even better. Regardless of whether you've seen the original film, BACK TO THE FUTURE: The Musical, with its outstanding performances and incredible stagecraft, will delight and enthrall you, your kids, your parents, and everyone you know!"

Tickets for BACK TO THE FUTURE: The Musical start at $44.07 and are available for purchase online at scfta.org, in person at 600 Town Center Drive in Costa Mesa, or by calling (714) 556-2787. # GIVING BACK 4 WAYS TO SUPPORT LOCAL SHELTERS DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON

The holidays are a time of giving, and there are few better ways to spread joy than by giving back to those in need in your community.

Consider these impactful ways to support local shelters and make a difference this holiday season.

Donate Essential Items to Shelters

One of the most direct ways to support local shelters is donating essential items. Shelters have a constant need for toiletries, warm clothing, blankets and non-perishable food items. By providing these necessities, you help ensure individuals and families in need can stay warm, clean and fed during the cold winter months. Consider organizing a donation drive among your friends, family or coworkers. Collect items such as socks, gloves, scarves and hygiene products to deliver to your local shelter.

Volunteer Your Time and Skills

Shelters often rely on volunteers to help with a variety of tasks, from serving meals and organizing donations to providing administrative support and offering professional services like legal aid or counseling. Consider what skills you can offer and reach out to see how you can assist.

Organize a Fundraising Event

Whether it's a bake sale, charity run or virtual auction, fundraising events can help local shelters provide essential services and support to those in need. Get creative with your fundraising ideas and use social media to promote your event. Engage local businesses and community members to participate and donate.

Spread Awareness Through Social Media

Social media is a powerful tool for spreading awareness and encouraging others to get involved. Use your platforms to share information about the needs of local shelters, upcoming events and ways people can help. Create posts highlighting the stories of those impacted by shelter services and provide links to donation pages or volunteer sign-ups.

PEDIATRICIANS SAY SHARING BOOKS WITH CHILDREN IS THE BEST HOLIDAY GIFT OF ALL

A book can inspire joy and stir the imagination, and even better this holiday season is the gift of sharing that book with your child.

"Turning the pages of a high-quality, print book filled with colorful pictures and rich, expressive language is best," said Dr. Dipesh Navsaria, a pediatrician. "While touchscreens and other electronic devices may be popular, they are typically passive or solitary experiences for children and do not offer the same benefits of interpersonal connection and relationship building."

Starting from infancy, reading aloud helps build the foundation for healthy social-emotional, cognitive, language and literacy development. Sharing books helps with language development and vocabulary, and gets them ready to listen and learn in school. And over the past decade, research has found that reading together helps foster positive interactions, strengthening the safe, stable and nurturing relationships young children must have to thrive.

The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) recommends reading with your child every day, even if only for a few minutes, and making it part of the bedtime routine. Each evening, set aside 20 to 30 minutes with screens off for sharing books.

Remember that the experience should be fun. You don't have to finish a story if your child loses interest. Let your child choose the book, even if it means reading the same book over and over. You can invite your child to "read" to you from a familiar book that they have memorized. Dr. Navsaria suggests asking about the illustrations or what your child thinks will happen next. You can say: "Can you find all the blue things?" or "Show me all the things that can fly." Point out colors, shapes, numbers and letters and respond with enthusiasm to your child's questions and comments.

Local libraries offer a wide variety of children's literature, including fairy tales, poetry and nursery rhymes, as well as non-fiction books on subjects children love, such as the ocean or dogs. Follow your child's interests in choosing books. Children's librarians can help you with high-quality book selections on a wide range of topics. And during the holidays, consider building your home library and reinforcing the value of great books by giving them as gifts.

By age 4, a child can typically tell you which books they want to share with you; pretend to read a favorite book aloud to you; and tell you how a story is like things they have seen or done. They may ask you questions about books you are enjoying together or "correct" you if you skip a word or page in a favorite book. As children grow older, reading can help develop character and values that are important to your family. In fact, a really great book has the power to counterbalance negative outside influences and teach children important lessons as they grow.

"It might be a book on kindness after your child experienced or witnessed cruelty," Dr. Navsaria said. "It might be a book on expressing emotions after your child saw or heard scary news coverage, or maybe a book on understanding differences after your child saw someone who looked different than they expected."

The AAP and Reach Out and Read have compiled a list of books—organized by age and topic—to help you raise children who are curious, brave, kind, thoughtful and aware of the world around them. You can find the list at healthychildren.org.

"Books are great conversation starters," Dr. Navsaria said. "They're also just a lot of fun and can help create wonderful memories, particularly during the holidays when you're spending extra time together. A shared reading experience, as a tender, magical and loving time spent with your child, is truly a gift. It speaks to the heart of what parenting is." (StatePoint)

HOLIDAY GIFT IDEAS FOR STUDENTS

Want to brighten the holiday season for the students in your life? Consider gifts that will ease the transition into the spring semester. Here are few to consider:

1. Support a musical journey: With 44 mini keys, the SA-81 from Casio is a great keyboard for both first-time players just embarking on their musical education and accomplished instrumentalists. A built-in metronome makes practice sessions a breeze, and features such as scale tuning, octave shift and transpose help introduce musical concepts. One-hundred high-quality built-in tones covering a range of instruments, including piano, wind, percussion and acoustic instruments, along with 50 rhythm patterns in a variety of genres like pop, ballad, dance, and more, offer budding musicians a chance to experiment and express themselves creatively right away. All housed in a compact frame, it's a great choice for young students, students on-the-go, and dorm dwellers.

2. Lighten their load: If you remember lugging around heavy textbooks during your own student days, consider lightening the load of your gift recipient with a high-quality e-reader. Look for a model with note-taking features, adjustable lighting to protect eyes and portability. A color screen is also a good idea, as it will make diagrams and charts easier to examine if your student will be reading textbooks on the device.

3. Bring the world of STEM within reach: With the advanced features of a next-generation graphing calculator, the fx-CG50 PRIZM can support students through middle school, high school and into college. With Natural Textbook Display and an intuitive icon menu, students will find the calculator incredibly easy to use. Its 3D graphing and improved catalog functions allow for greater engagement and real-life application in the mathematics classroom, and a host of compatible resources available at casioeducation.com can set them up for success. Because the model is approved for the SAT, PSAT, ACT and AP tests, your gift will be helping them prepare for a bright future.

4. Help them keep time: Is your student an athlete? Whether they run track, do swim team or tackle contact sports head-on, a durable, water-resistant sports watch can help them track their speed and progress throughout the season.

5. Expand their world: While many people today get their news by rapidly scanning headlines on apps, a deeper dive can improve literacy, expand knowledge and foster an understanding of the world. Consider gifting your student a subscription to a high-quality newspaper or news magazine.

This holiday season, give students thoughtful gifts that will ease their life and make their schoolwork and extracurriculars more enjoyable.

HOW TO KEEP KIDS' MINDS ACTIVE DURING THE HOLIDAY BREAK

Even a short vacation from school can cause learning loss and leave kids feeling behind when they return to the classroom. Fortunately, there are many ways to keep minds active during the holiday break, some of which will reinforce the concepts they are learning in school. Here are a few of them:

Vacation Reading: Whether you're traveling for the holidays or sticking close to home, curling up with a book is a great way to spend some of the inevitable down time. At the start of the break, hit up the library so everyone in the family will have plenty to read on subjects of interest to them. You might also consider giving at least one title to each gift recipient on your list this year to emphasize the idea that books can be treasured objects.

Online Math Tools: Casio's suite of engaging education resources can help ensure students keep up their skills during the holidays. Those with the fx-9750GIII graphing calculator or (other easy-to-use models with hundreds of functions) will find plenty to challenge them when they check out Casio's expansive resource library of activities, Python programs and more, all of which are available for free online. From calculating slopes and finding derivatives to evaluating inferences and predications based on data, the resource includes exercises for every area of mathematical focus, including calculus, geometry and statistics.

Historical Day Trip: Take a day trip to a historic site to bring the past to life. Whether you visit a battlefield, the home of a notable figure, or a historically preserved city center, your trip will provoke discussion and keep minds engaged. If taking a scheduled tour is not possible due to limited holiday hours, do a bit of research on the site beforehand to give your family more context about what they will be seeing. This will make the trip more enjoyable and engaging. Exercise: Staying active is not just good for physical health, it's also good for the mind and soul. With no P.E. class on the schedule however, kids may be missing out on their daily dose of exercise. Be sure to go on a walk or bike ride each day or get out in the yard for some touch football or frisbee. If the weather is frightful, visit a yoga studio or even stay home and do an exercise class on YouTube. This holiday season, balancing educational and healthy activities with fun and relaxation can help ensure your students return to school focused, engaged and ready to start a brand new semester. (StatePoint)

By Frank Mangio & Rico Cassoni

HERB & SEA: AN ENCINITAS CULINARY GEM BLENDING EAST COAST TRADITIONS WITH CALIFORNIA CHARM

Story by Rico Cassoni

Encinitas is home to many fantastic dining destinations, but none quite like Herb & Sea. Blending classic East Coast culinary traditions with a modern Californian sensibility, this restaurant is Chef Brian Malarkey and Chris Puffer's coastal companion to the acclaimed Herb & Wood in Little Italy. Malarkey is a nationally recognized chef who has created 15 successful restaurants, including Herb & Wood and Animate. Known for his appearances on Top Chef All-Stars and Guy's Grocery Games, Malarkey brings expertise and creativity to all his projects. Since opening in November 2019, just before the pandemic, Herb & Sea has established itself as one of the most sought-after reservations in town.

When Frank and I arrived on a Wednesday evening, the energy was electric, with a line of eager diners already forming at the door before opening. By 6:30 PM, the restaurant was buzzing, nearly at full capacity. Upon entering, we were greeted by the enticing aromas of wood-fired meats and seafood and the warm glow of art deco-inspired decor.

Executive Chef Aidan Owens, an Australian native, oversees the Herb & Sea kitchen. Growing up on a farm near Byron Bay, Owens developed a passion for fresh, seasonal ingredients and international flavors. At Herb & Sea, he masterfully blends Mediterranean influences with local California produce and seafood, working closely with purveyors like Dassi Farms and Fisherman John Lawe. Owens changes the menu seasonally, ensuring each dish reflects the best of what's fresh and available.

San Diego native Luke Ruiz, Herb & Sea's General Manager since 2021, brings a decade of hospitality experience to the restaurant. Our server, Andrea Carreno, was exceptional. Warm, vibrant, and knowledgeable, Andrea walked us through the menu, shared insights into the restaurant's fresh-squeezed cocktail philosophy and made stellar recommendations throughout the evening.

Chef Owens created an exceptional lineup of starters that showcased his knack for balancing bold and nuanced flavors. The Sumac tomatoes were a standout, featuring muhammara, Mediterranean herbs, sumac vinaigrette, and sesame crunch that delivered bright, zesty notes in every bite. The Beef Carpaccio paired razor-thin cut, tender filet mignon with a caramelized onion dip, arugula, and a caprese vinaigrette, creating a harmonious blend of textures and flavors.

The Hoecake & Caviar was a delightful balance of savory and sweet, combining smoked striped sea bass rilette with brown butter corn cake and honey butter drizzle. Lastly, the Lamb Meatballs, with cucumber tabbouleh, zhug, and pomegranate, packed bold Mediterranean flavors that left a lasting impression.

Frank paired his starters with a glass of Jordan Chardonnay, a classic white wine that complemented the vibrant flavors. I enjoyed the Little Stickler, a bold cocktail with three chili-infused Santo tequila, prickly pear, lime, and Tajin, before trying the H&S Old Fashioned, a modern take on the classic, featuring bourbon, amaro lucano, cynar, honey, and an orange twist.

The entrées at Herb & Sea were extraordinary, with each dish showcasing impeccable technique and bold flavors. The Seared Local Halibut, sourced from John Lawe, featured a golden crust that gave way to tender, flaky fish. Served with toasted orzo chorizo risotto, braised fennel, and sundried tomatoes, the dish was an exquisite balance of richness and depth.

The Grilled Local Swordfish, sourced from Andrew Hemstreet, was tender and succulent. Smoked jalapeño yogurt lent a creamy, spicy undertone, while sumac onion and Granny Smith apple added fresh, tangy notes that elevated the dish.

The Grilled Half Peri Peri Chicken, featuring Mary's Organic chicken, brought bold, spicy flavors to the table. The ruby agrodolce provided a tangy glaze, while toum and Moroccan herbs added depth to this perfectly grilled dish.

The Embered Beets cooked in coals also stood out with their smoky, caramelized sweetness complemented with pistachio butter, date vinaigrette, pickled onions, and crispy shallots.

We paired our entrees with Paso Robles Niner Cabernet Sauvignon. The richness of the entrées was perfectly balanced by the wine's structured profile.

Andrea encouraged us to try the Carajillo, an off the menu Mexican-inspired after-dinner cocktail made with Licor 43 and fresh orange zest. This rich, aromatic drink was the perfect match for Herb & Sea's exceptional desserts.

The Date Cake, served with butterscotch sauce, candied walnut, and hazelnut gelato, was instantly my favorite, combining warm, comforting flavors with a touch of elegance. The Chocolate Mousse Pie, featuring a candied pistachio brownie base and pistachio ice cream, was a chocoholic's dream. While I'm typically partial to chocolate, the date cake slightly edged out as the star of the dessert course.

Herb & Sea's Happy Hour is offered Tuesday to Friday from 5:00 to 6:00 PM. Guests can even make reservations, a rare convenience for happy hour. A favorite is the "Happy Meal", which includes a smash burger, three West Coast oysters, crispy fries, and a glass of Prosecco for just $20. It's a deal that feels too good to be true and a perfect excuse to stop by after work.

Frank and I were wowed by our visit to Herb & Sea. Chef Aidan Owens creates dishes that are fresh, inventive, and comforting. His talent is undeniable! I would not be surprised to see him earn a Michelin star one day. Pair that with Luke Ruiz's warm, welcoming leadership and Andrea Carreno's top-notch service, and you've got an experience that's second to none. Herb & Sea isn't just a restaurant, it's a place where every detail from the food to the drinks to the hospitality comes together perfectly. If you are looking for a dining experience that's as vibrant as it is delicious, Herb & Sea is a must-visit destination.

WALKING WITH ANTHONY'S CHARITY SOIREE RAISES OVER $450,000 FOR SPINAL CORD INJURY SUPPORT

The picturesque Balboa Bay Resort served as the perfect backdrop for an unforgettable evening as Walking With Anthony hosted its Stand Up for a Cause charity soiree. This inspiring gathering raised more than $450,000 in support of individuals with spinal cord injuries (SCI), providing hope, resources, and empowerment to countless families. The event coincided with National Disability Employment Awareness Month, emphasizing the importance of inclusion and opportunities for people with disabilities.

The night was brimming with heartfelt moments, beginning with a powerful tribute to the late NBA legend Jerry West, whose commitment to Walking With Anthony was honored with an award accepted by Blain Skinner, long-time LA Lakers Front Office Executive, on behalf of the West family. Peter Wilderotter, former president & CEO of the Christopher & Dana Reeve Foundation, was also recognized for his unwavering dedication to improving lives in the SCI community.

Guests were captivated by motivational guest speaker Mike Barwis, founder & CEO of Barwis Performance Centers, who spoke about the resilience required to overcome the challenges faced by SCI survivors. As a special treat, attendees were given an exclusive sneak peek of the upcoming feature film "DARUMA," executive produced by Peter Farrelly. Lead actors Tobias Forrest and John W. Lawson, who are breaking industry barriers with their authentic representation of the disabled community, graced the red carpet. Forrest received the Christopher Reeve Acting Award, presented by none other than Oscar-winning actress Marlee Matlin, while Lawson was honored for his outstanding performance with the Best Actor award from the Slamdance Film Festival.

The room buzzed with excitement as influential figures in the SCI community gathered in support, including MMA champions Ian McCall and Rampage Jackson, popular social media advocates Anthony Sanchez, Taran Nolan, Kevin Ortiz, and Natalie Buchoz. Their dedication to raising awareness and amplifying the voices of SCI survivors brought significant visibility to the cause and highlighted the power of solidarity.

Walking With Anthony's founder, Micki Purcell, expressed gratitude to the sponsors whose generosity made this magical evening possible. With the support of The West Family, Tito's Vodka, JP Morgan Private Bank, and many others, the event exemplified the power of community coming together for a worthy cause.

"We are incredibly grateful to our sponsors, whose generosity and commitment have made this unforgettable evening possible," said Micki Purcell, Founder of Walking With Anthony. "Their support not only helps us raise critical funds but also brings hope and healing to spinal cord injury survivors and their families. Together, we're changing lives and showing that recovery is within reach. Thank you for standing with us in our mission to make a difference."

"This extraordinary evening proved the impact of community, raising essential funds and awareness to support SCI survivors and their families on their journey toward recovery and empowerment," said Anthony Purcell, Walking With Anthony's Executive Director. "We remain committed to changing the perception of spinal cord injury recovery and ensuring that no one faces this journey alone."

The Stand Up for a Cause charity soiree reminded us of the power of resilience and determination and the importance of supporting one another. It was a night filled with love, laughter, and the reminder that when we come together, extraordinary things can happen.

Sponsors include The West Family, Titos Vodka, JP Morgan Private Bank, Round Table Financial, BioXcellerator Stem Cell Therapy, MZT Technology, Nuggets & Carats, Darian Merage Foundation, Nolan Brands, Hardy Windows, JetBlue, EverBank, ADP, Syllbar, Memorial Care, and Deneka Waddell Real Estate. Venue Partner: Balboa Bay Resort and Media Partner: Riviera Magazine. Event Production: Elite OC Productions

Born from Anthony Purcell's personal experience and his mother Micki's determination to change the course of his future, Walking With Anthony is a non-profit organization with the mission to forever change the recovery outcome of Spinal Cord Injury, currently perceived as unchangeable. The organization is dedicated to raising awareness of the impact of SCI, raising funds to provide financial assistance directly to SCI survivors, expanding rehabilitation centers, and supporting research relating to SCI rehabilitation. # Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half! Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."

Print your ad copy in the box at right.
